

OffsiteNZ COLAB22: Offsite Construction Innovation Conference Exhibitor Opportunity

Taking place on 29 March 2022 at Shed 6, Wellington – OffsiteNZ's COLAB22: Offsite Construction Innovation Conference will highlight innovative actions in the construction sector with the focus on offsite manufacturing. We will showcase the latest trends and innovations in New Zealand and internationally covering residential, commercial and infrastructure. Our conference will also provide an overview of the political, economic, regulatory, skills and sustainability landscape shaping the sector.

We will bring together influential organisations and professionals who are driving best practice and innovative technology in the construction sector.

COLAB22: Offsite Construction Innovation Conference is open to a range of exhibitors including offsite manufacturers and component suppliers who wish to showcase quality systems and solutions. Our exhibitors include some of the industry's leading and emerging names, who are developing the most innovative products, systems and processes which are helping to advance offsite technology.
